Winery Highlight

Antiquum Farm

Willamette, Oregon

Antiquum Farm is a 140 acre farm located in the Willamette Valley of Oregon. Just over 20 acres are planted to some of the finest Pinot Gris and Pinot Noir vines in the area. Antiquum is known for their unique terrior expressive wines showcasing the beauty of their vineyards. They have developed a new system of wine growing called Grazing-Based Viticulture. The central tenet of this process is to grow wines that clearly communicate the wild and honest soul of this place and the principles of its people. The farm is managed without fertilizers, compost, or foliar feeds to create wines of individualistic spirit and truthful terrior. Carefully selected animals roam and graze the vineyards to create an intricate, living, breathing ecosystem. Wines here are made in many single bottlings showcasing the distinct differences in areas of the vineyards and are produced in small quantities. Try these wines before they are sold out for the season!
